How did you hear of Chiang Rai International Christian School (CRICS)?

CHRISTIAN LIFE:

CRICS seeks teachers with a clear commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior. It is a cooperative and united fellowship of Christians from many church backgrounds.

Please share with us your testimony of your journey of faith as you came to know and follow Jesus Christ. (use additional paper, as necessary).

Church Affiliation and place of worship:

What is the extent of your involvement in your local Church?

In what other Christian work or other service activities have you been active?

What is your Christian motivation for wanting to come to CRICS?

Do you accept the Statement of Faith included at the end of this application?

What is your experience of living with Christians of other cultures and races?

CRICS is an international organization whose members are from different church backgrounds. Are you open and willing to accept the fact that other Christians from other cultural backgrounds express their faith differently?

What is your experience of living in a different culture?

In Thailand the majority of the people are Buddhists. Your neighbors will mostly belong to other than the Christian religion. Please explain how you would express respect for people of other faiths.

STATEMENT FROM CRICS BOARD and ADMINISTRATION

Our mission at CRICS is to “serve the servant by providing quality, innovative, family-orientated English Christian Education.” All volunteers are expected to continually maintain a Christian lifestyle which enables CRICS to fulfill its mission. Where volunteers engage in behavior that the School Administrators perceive hinders CRICS from fulfilling its mission they (the Administrators) have the right to address those issues with the volunteers directly. In cases that the School Administrators deem to be serious, they reserve the right to dismiss a volunteer and have sponsorship for his or her visa withdrawn immediately.

APPLICANT STATEMENT

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize any references or churches listed in this application to give you any information they have regarding my character and fitness for youth/children work, and I release all such references from liability for any damages that may result from furnishing such evaluation to you.

Should my application be accepted, I agree to do my best to help CRICS fulfill its mission. I also agree to be accountable to the School Administration for my behavior and conduct as I perform my services on behalf of the school. In signing this application, I affirm that the information that I have given here is true and correct.

*Please note that additional documents will be required upon your acceptance. Visa and Work Permit laws require that you have the following on file at CRICS: Passport copy (must have at least 6 months of validity on it); birth certificates for your children, marriage certificate, official transcripts of college courses, copy of teaching certificate, copy of diploma, TOFEL test if you are applying to be a teacher and if you are not from Great Britain, Northern Ireland, USA, Australia, New Zealand and Canada. CRICS requires criminal Background Checks of all teachers and volunteers. Additional forms required include recommendation forms, physical health forms and sending organization form.

LIFESTYLE OF EXPATRIATES WORKING AT CRICS:

Our mission at CRICS is to “serve the servant by providing quality, innovative, family-orientated English Christian Education.” All volunteers are expected to continually maintain a Christian lifestyle which enables the CRICS to fulfill its mission. Therefore all expatriates accepted for service with CRICS must be Christians and are expected to demonstrate Christian values in their lifestyle.

While there may be different behavior patterns on some moral issues within the Christian church worldwide, we feel that a conscious effort to maintain a Christian lifestyle is very important, and behavior that hinders CRICS from fulfilling its mission is grounds for dismissal. The school will not attempt to define such behavior in detail ahead of time; but our definitions of Christian lifestyle include the facts that we expect single people to remain celibate, and husbands and wives to be faithful to one another within their marriage.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

1. We believe the Bible to be the inspired, infallible, authoritative Word of God and the final authority in faith and life. (2 Timothy 3:16, 2 Peter 1:21).
2. We believe there is one God, eternally existent in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Genesis 1:1, Matthew 28:19, John 10:30).
3. We believe in the deity of Christ (John 10:33),
His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14, Matthew 1:23, Luke 1:35),
His sinless life (Hebrews 4: 15, 7:26), His miracles (John 2:11),
His vicarious and atoning death (1 Corinthians 15:3, Ephesians 1:7, Hebrews 2:9),
His Resurrection (John 11:25, 1 Corinthians 15:4),
His Ascension to the right hand of God (Mark 16:19),
His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11, Revelation 19:11).
4. We believe in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature and that men are justified on the single ground of faith in the shed blood of Christ and that only by God's grace and through faith alone are we saved (John 3:16–19, 5:24; Romans 3:23, 5:8–9; Ephesians 2:8–10; Titus 3:5).
5. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life, and they that are lost unto the resurrection of condemnation (John 5:28–29).
6. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9, 1 Corinthians 12:12–13, Galatians 3:26–28).
7. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly (Romans 8:13–14; 1 Corinthians 3:16, 6:19-20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).
